Motion by Heinemann, second by Beacom to handle the current Presentation College Freedom Scholarship recipients due to Presentation College's pending closure as follows: If a 2022-23 recipient from Presentation College attends another Freedom Scholarship participating institution, they will be eligible for a Freedom Scholarship for the 23-24 academic year. If they go to an institution out of state, such as St Ambrose University, their existing scholarship will be deferred and no more scholarship money will be issued. However if that same student on deferment graduates and then lives and works in South Dakota for three years after graduation, the scholarship will not revert to a loan. Motion carried with a voice vote.

VanderWoude departed the meeting at 12:58 pm.

Heinemann motioned and Dykhouse seconded for executive session for student matters (SDCL 1-25-2(2)) at 12:59 pm.

Chairman Dykhouse declared executive session over at 1:18 pm. No votes were taken in executive session.

Dykhouse motioned and Heinemann seconded to approve exceptions for students for the 2022-2023 school year.

The board determined it will hear exceptions for the 2023-24 school year at its April meeting.

The board further discussed its student appeal policy. It was determined that it would hear exceptions to the requirements at board meetings, giving universities ample time to prepare.

Elli Haerter shared some additional detail about student withdrawals, noting that a student might re-enroll in spring semester after withdrawing in the fall, and could still complete their degree in five years or less. It was determined Elli would monitor the withdrawn students and report back to the board. Motion by Heinemann, seconded by Houwman to allow for six months before a student who has withdrawn begins to pay back their scholarship and also allow for a graduate to have 6 months before their employment obligation begins. Should employment begin before six months, that will count towards their obligation. Motion carries on a voice vote.
