

Dear _____,

Congratulations on being chosen to receive a South Dakota Freedom Scholarship! This award includes a needs-based scholarship to one of 10 participating universities in South Dakota. There is no requirement to pay back this scholarship if the following requirements are met:

- Maintain a cumulative Grade Point Average of 2.0 while receiving the scholarship.
- Pursue a baccalaureate degree while attending an eligible university.
- Graduate in five years or less.
- Live and work in South Dakota for at least three years following graduation.
- Acknowledge that any failure to meet these requirements will result in the scholarship being converted to a 4% fixed-interest loan.

If you are unable to fulfill any of these requirements, the scholarship amount will be reverted to an interest-bearing loan with a fixed interest rate of 4 percent.

Because this scholarship could be reverted to a loan, we provide the enclosed lending disclosures. Again, this will only occur if you are unable to fulfill the requirements listed above. We do, however, require you to provide signatures where indicated.

1. Solicitation Disclosure -- includes information regarding the cost of the loan, repayment terms
2. Approval Disclosure -- includes information on the interest rate, fees and costs, repayment terms, consumer rights and alternatives to this private education loan.
3. Closed-End Credit Disclosure —includes information about the finance charge for the term of the loan and the dollar amount the credit will cost you.
4. A Self-Certification Form must be signed by you, the consumer, before closing on the loan.
5. Freedom Scholarship Acceptance Agreement and Promissory Note must be signed by you, the consumer. These are the loan documents that spell out the stipulations of the scholarship and the amount awarded this year.

 After your acceptance and before disbursement of the loan, a final disclosure will be provided via email that includes interest rate information, fees, default or late payment costs, repayment terms and a statement of the consumer's rights and methods of cancellation. You will be given until midnight on the third business day after receiving the final disclosure to cancel the Freedom Scholarship.

We are excited to award you this scholarship and we look forward to having you join South Dakota's workforce. The South Dakota Freedom Scholarship is our state's first public-private partnership to provide needs-based scholarships to qualifying students. The program is managed by the South Dakota Community Foundation, and we ask that you contact us with any questions you might have. Best wishes for a great year ahead!

Sincerely,
Elli Haerter

A private education loan is a loan provided by a private education lender that is not a Title IV loan and that is issued expressly for postsecondary education expenses, regardless of whether the loan is provided through the school that the student attends or directly to the borrower from the private education lender. $10.00 charge for each payment made by phone

Examples	Amount Provided (amount provided directly to your school)	Interest Rate	Loan Term (how long you have to pay off the loan)	Total Paid (when you have made all the payments)
1. 10-year maximum repayment with required $50.00 monthly payment Received a Freedom Scholarship, and after graduation in May 2025 and did not fulfill the three-year live and work in SD requirement.	$5,000	4.0%	120 month term Repayment upon scholarship termination 6/1/2025	$6,074.49
2. 10-year maximum repayment with required $50.00 monthly payment Received a Freedom Scholarship for two years in row and then drop out of college, therefore not receiving a baccalaureate degree.	$7,000	4.0%	120 month term Repayment upon scholarship termination 6/1/2025	$8,504.59

About these examples

Examples above show scenarios in which the scholarship reverts to a loan. Example 1: student chooses not to stay in South Dakota to live and work for three years after graduation (also called "employment obligation") and therefore must repay the Freedom Scholarship as a loan. Should you start your employment obligation but not finish it, debt will be pro-rated to give credit for full months completed. Example 2: Not completing a baccalaureate degree would also result in your scholarship reverting to a loan due to not following scholarship eligibility.

You may qualify for Federal education loans.

You may qualify for Federal student financial assistance through a program under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965. A covered education institution may have school-specific education loan benefits and terms not detailed in this disclosure form.

Repayment Terms:

1. This loan has a maximum repayment period of 120 months with a required minimum monthly payment of $50.00. Minimum monthly payments may shorten the repayment term.
2. You may request to defer your three-year employment commitment to pursue graduate level education or military service. Requests must be made to the Freedom Scholarship Board within three months of baccalaureate degree graduation.
3. Interest does not accrue during the time frame you are a student nor while you are completing your employment obligation. Interest begins to accrue if you do not graduate in five years or less, you drop out of college or if you do not fulfill the employment obligation and the Board reverts your scholarship to a loan. For example, if you leave South Dakota to live and work in another state after graduation before completing the employment obligation, your scholarship will revert to a loan and interest will start accruing. Repayment schedule assumes that you become ineligible for the Freedom Scholarship and therefore begin repayment on the above mentioned date. If you comply with Freedom Scholarship eligibility, there is no loan so you will not repay it.

Students are not required to make payments while enrolled at a covered institution, pursuant to the terms of the Freedom Scholarship.

Interest will not accrue while the student is enrolled and in good standing at a participating educational institution. Interest will not accrue during the employment obligation.

Should you start your employment obligation but not finish it, debt will be pro-rated to give credit for full months completed.
