SUBJECT: Aircraft Dealer License Appeal

Per SDCL 50-12-14; Ryan Good of Ryan Good Aviation LLC of Sioux Falls. has requested the Aeronautics Commission waive the requirement of selling and/or brokering 6 aircraft in the past 24-month period so he may renew his dealer license for another 2 years.

Mr. Good has been a dealer since 2019. He asks that the Aeronautics Commission allow him to be a plane dealer for another 2 years. Per his email (attached), he has been unable to meet his sales requirement due to the COVID pandemic.

SDCL 50-12-14. Renewal of dealer's license--Verification of aircraft sold--Fees. Each licensed dealer on or before February first of the second year shall make application for the renewal of the dealer's license. The dealer shall verify having sold or brokered at least six aircraft within the past twenty-four calendar months. However, any dealer not meeting the requirements of this section may appeal to the commission for renewal of a dealer's license if the dealer can demonstrate reasonable cause for not meeting those requirements. The fee for the renewal of license is the same as that required for an original license. Upon failure to make application for the renewal of the license, and to pay the renewal fee on or before the first day of February of the second year, an additional fee of ten dollars per month, or any fraction thereof, is required before the license shall be issued.

A former dealer may make an application for an original aircraft dealer's license after thirty-six months from the expiration date of the dealer's license.

Jennifer,

While I was able to sell 3 airplanes unfortunately I wasn't able to meet the 6 airplane per two years sales. I am actively pursuing buyers for airplanes I own currently.

With covid and the uncertainty that has arisen from the pandemic it has been hard to travel and to meet prospective buyers.

While I will still try to meet the minimum by the end of March I would like an extension if possible.

I greatly appreciate your consideration and appreciate your time.

Regards,

Ryan Good
