To Whom It May Concern,

The City of Winner would like to use some of its fuel tax fund to help with the purchase of some snow removal equipment; the amount requested is $8,100. The plan is to purchase a large snow blower which, during large snow events will help keep the Winner Regional Airport open for business. Please review this request at your next meeting and let us know if you need further information.

Thank you for your consideration of the matter.
