Members discussed AANP opposition towards the APRN compact.
- c. Olson shared 2024 SD legislative changes that impacted APRNs, including:
 - i. HB 1028 which classifies xylazine as a schedule III-controlled substance, establishes permissible uses in veterinary medicine, and declared an emergency as this substance has led to fatal drug overdoses when mixed with fentanyl;
 - ii. SB 198 which authorizes a licensed health care professional to prescribe and distribute glucagon to public or private schools for administration to a student who has diabetes and is experiencing severe hypoglycemia;
 - iii. SB 10 which requires a practitioner who issues medical cannabis certification to provide electronic notification of the certification to a patient's primary or referring provider;
 - iv. SB 11 which prohibits a practitioner from referring a patient to a medical cannabis clinic with which the practitioner or immediate family member has a financial relationship; and

9. Open Dialog on APRN Practice, Roles, Activities:
