Sara McGregor-Okroi to approve the Lutheran Social Services Rapid City JDAI Coordination application at $40,227, Chief McNeil seconded. Motion carried unanimously with Amy Witt abstaining from discussion and action and Chief Judge Burns excused.

10. STATUS REPORT

DOC Updates: John Stewart reported that DOC has done some restructuring, and the Juvenile Justice Specialist, Compliance Monitor, and R/ED Coordinator duties are under the Juvenile Justice Specialist position now, occupied by John Stewart. Kristi Bunkers will continue to oversee the works as the Director of Juvenile Services.

Budget: Stewart reported that South Dakota is still spending previous year's awards, mostly the 2022 award. Stewart noted that the FY2024 budget was recently approved by OJJDP for $622,829 after fulfilling the SAG member requirements. Stewart noted that CJJ membership dues were paid using the SAG funds, R/ED line item is used for DOC staff costs working on R/ED efforts, Compliance line item is used for DOC staff efforts working on compliance.

OJJDP Updates: Stewart shared that CYJT/CCAS/AIR had their TTA contract terminated with OJJDP. No new TTA provider has been named. Stewart shared that the Compliance Monitoring Tool is open, and DOC is working to submit compliance and

R/ED data to OJJDP by the July 8th deadline. Stewart gave a recap of the CJJ conference in Washington D.C. noting that there were more sessions highlighting Native American alternatives to detention and behavioral health efforts.

Compliance: Stewart outlined that there are 5 potential DSO violations and 1 potential jail removal violation. Surveys were sent out to law enforcement facilities to identify facilities that have security features that may cause the facility to be reclassified. Stewart noted the increase in reporting facilities due to reclassifications. Stewart noted that two of the violations were related to youth being held for behavioral health concerns. SDCL defines youth in this situation as a status offense and OJJDP confirmed they should be counted as violations. Stewart noted that one violation was due to a youth being held on charges from multiple counties with one county dropping the delinquent charges, but the other maintaining the status offense charges. Since the facility was not notified until after 24 hours of dropping the delinquent charges, a violation had to be reported. Stewart reported that the last two potential violations were the result of being sentenced to detention for more than 24 hours on status offenses. All potential violations have been addressed with the facilities and other personnel as appropriate. Chair O'Toole asked what it would take for South Dakota to be out of compliance. Stewart responded that 8 DSO violations would potentially put South Dakota out of compliance and could cost South Dakota 20% of future Title II funding. Stewart explained that the Mitchell PD, Sioux Falls PD, Yankton PD, Sisseton PD, Butte County SO, Sanborn County SO, Potter County SO, Stanley County SO, Kingsbury County SO, Bennett County SO, Hutchinson County SO, and Tea PD were reclassified to secure lockups. Lawrence County Courthouse is classified as a Court Holding Facility.

11. JUVENILE JUSTICE UPDATES

Cindy Heiberger shared that the Juvenile Justice Center in Sioux Falls will be moving in October. Invitations will be sent to invite people to tour the facility. The youth housing units are phase one. Phase two involves tearing down the old JDC and building the rest of the new building. have groundbreaking has begun for the new Minnehaha County Juvenile Detention Center. The juvenile housing is anticipated to be complete by summer 2025.

Council members expressed gratitude and excitement about the number of and variety of grants that were approved for FY2025 and reflected on how much improvement there has been to South Dakota's juvenile justice system in the last 14 years.

12. JUVENILE JUSTICE UPDATES

An executive meeting will be scheduled on or after July 14th. A full council meeting will be scheduled in the fall with exact date and location to be determined.

At 11:44 AM, Cindy Heiberger moved to adjourn, Sara McGregor-Okroi seconded. Motion carried unanimously.
