SOUTH DAKOTA ARTS COUNCIL TO MEET NOV. 9

PIERRE, S.D. – Members of the South Dakota Arts Council (SDAC), the advisory board of the state arts agency, will meet remotely via online/call-in format Nov. 9 for the Council’s annual fall meeting.

The meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m. CST. An agenda will be posted 72 hours prior to the meeting at <https://boardsandcommissions.sd.gov/Meetings.aspx?BoardID=7>. The public is invited to listen to the proceedings. For instructions, follow the link provided. For more information or assistance, please contact the SDAC office, 605-773-3301 or e-mail sdac@state.sd.us.

Constituents are also invited to offer public comment in accordance with South Dakota Open Meetings Laws. Due to the virtual meeting setting, we invite public comment to be submitted in writing to be read during the meeting. Constituents may also provide public comments live via phone or by joining our meeting online. Anyone wishing to offer live comments during the meeting should reach out to our office via email or phone to arrange to join the meeting.

The Council will consider panel recommendations for touring and teaching artist roster applications and changes to artist fees during the meeting.

An office of the South Dakota Department of Tourism, the South Dakota Arts Council’s mission is to provide grants and services to artists, arts organizations and schools across the state, with funding from the National Endowment for the Arts and the South Dakota Legislature. The South Dakota Department of Tourism is comprised of Tourism and the South Dakota Arts Council. The Department is led by Secretary James D. Hagen.
