

PROPOSED CHANGES TO MASSAGE THERAPY ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

20:76:01:02. Application. An application for licensure, temporary permit, inactive status, reactivation, or renewal of a license must be made in writing on a form prescribed by the board. The applicable application fee must be submitted with the application. The application fee is non-refundable. The applicable license fee must also accompany the application. The license fee is refundable if the application is denied or withdrawn.

An application is not complete until all required documentation is received by the board. The executive secretary may return an application for initial licensure, reactivation, or temporary permit that remains uncomplete one year after the date of initial submission of the application. Materials received by the board from a third party may not be returned to the applicant. A returned application shall be considered withdrawn.

An applicant shall verify under the penalties of perjury that all the information submitted on an application by the applicant is true and correct. An applicant who submits an application by use of the internet agrees that submission of the application serves as the applicant's signature and verification of the information of the application. An applicant must notify the board if another state has disciplined the applicant with a reprimand, censure, suspension, temporary suspension, probation, revocation, or refusal to renew a license. The applicant may be required to clarify, expand, or provide additional information to fully evaluate all qualifications. If the applicant does not meet the requirements for licensure, a temporary permit, reactivation, or ~~renewal~~renewal of a license, the executive secretary shall write a letter of explanation. The applicant may return the application and ask that it be submitted for board action.
