

SD Health Care Solutions Coalition
01/01/2018

Purpose:

The group will develop specifics of a plan to see if existing funds in the state's Medicaid budget can be re-purposed within the Medicaid program in South Dakota; the plan would also focus on ways to increase access to health care for people eligible for care through Indian Health Services in our state.

Chairs:

Kim Malsam-Rysdon, Governor's Senior Advisor/Secretary of Health, Co-Chair
Jerilyn Church, Great Plains Tribal Chairman's Health Board, Co-Chair

Members:

Kathaleen Bad Moccasin, Indian Health Service
Corey Brown, Sanford Health
Dr. Mary Carpenter, Medical Director, SD Medicaid Program
Liza Clark, Budget Director, Bureau of Finance and Management (alternates: Mark Quasney & Kelsey Roth)
Sara DeCoteau, Sisseton Tribal Health Director
Mike Diedrich, Regional Health
Terry Dosch, Council of Community Mental Health Centers and Community Substance Abuse Providers
James Driving Hawk, Indian Health Service
Scott Duke, South Dakota Association of Health Care Organizations
Steve Emery, Secretary of Tribal Relations
Deb Fischer-Clemens, Avera Health
Richard Greenwald, Oglala Sioux Tribe
Representative Spencer Hawley, Brookings
Senator Troy Heinert, Mission
David Kills A Hundred, Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribe
Representative Jean Hunhoff, Yankton
Senator Jeff Partridge, Rapid City
Senator Deb Peters, Sioux Falls
Tim Rave, Sanford Health
Charlene Red Thunder, Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe tribal health consultant
Barb Smith, SD State Medical Association (alternate: Mark East)
Senator Deb Soholt, Sioux Falls
Jennifer Stalley, Community Health Centers of South Dakota
Representative Wayne Steinhauer, Hartford
Senator Billie Sutton, Burke
Shelly Ten Napel, Community Health Centers of South Dakota
Brenda Tidball-Zeltinger, Deputy Secretary of Social Services
Lynne Valenti, Secretary of Social Services
Tony Venhuizen, Governor's Chief of Staff
Sonia Weston, Oglala Sioux Tribal Council