

12:10:02:25. Lifetime transportation permit for horses. A lifetime transportation permit for a horse requires an ownership inspection of the horse by an authorized inspector of the Brand Board. Only one horse is covered by each lifetime transportation permit.

The permit must contain a description of the horse denoting breed, color, sex, approximate weight, and any marks or brands, and the name and address of the owner.

The person transporting the horse must have the permit in possession.

The fee for a lifetime transportation permit is ~~$20~~ $40.

The permit provides proof of ownership of the horse and is valid until the horse changes ownership, at which time the previous owner shall surrender the permit to the Brand Board or its authorized agent.
